RETAIL PRICE LIST

OF

High Grade Nursery Stock

Special Instructions

Our salesmen are requested not to vary from these prices but to hold strictly to list. There is no surplus of good nursery stock and is not likely to be for some years to come. No nursery stock can be imported from abroad as formerly, and labor costs are excessively high. Our prices are as low as any other concern doing business through salesmen on the same grades and sizes of stock.

Where a quantity of stock is desired and you cannot get full retail prices, it is always advisable to quote our wholesale rates. If you have not our latest wholesale prices, send for them at once. These special prices draw our regular wholesale commissions. Large orders must be accompanied by bank references. We reserve the right to hold back commissions on large orders, until the customer's credit rating is established.

Note particularly the class of stock which can be sent Parcel Post, pages 8 to 21 inclusive. We call it "Small Stock" and the rest of the price list "Large Stock." We send all small stock by mail and get it into the customers' hands very quickly. It is advisable to specialize on this class of stock as far as possible. Our sales on small fruits, grapes, shrubs, roses and perennials have enormously increased the past few years.

While the prices named herein are subject to change at any time, we always give due notice of such changes in our News Letter which is mailed frequently. Make any changes of prices in your list IMMEDIATELY.

Standard Apples—Continued

Ten acres of apples (400 trees) at ten years old are worth $1,000.00 per acre. There is no more sure way to enhance the value of a farm. The first cost is trifling.

Crab Apples

The Crab Apple is one of the hardiest of all trees, and is particularly adapted to the cold climates of the North. It comes into bearing early, bears every year and is considered one of the most productive of all fruits. There is no better fruit for cider, vinegar and jelly. For ordinary cooking purposes it is not necessary to remove the skin. We want to see our salesmen sell more of this stock.

5 to 6 ft.

$1.50 each, $18.00 per doz.

Excelsior	Red Siberian
General Grant	Transcendent
Hyslop	Whitney
Martha	Yellow Siberian

Standard Pears

Very few people realize that this is the longest lived of all fruits. It thrives on any kind of soil, and does particularly well on heavy clayey soils where other fruits prefer lighter land. It stands shipping well and is kept in cold storage each year until the following summer. Our sales are constantly increasing in these most luscious varieties.

GROUP A

5 to 6 ft.

$1.50 each, $17.00 per dozen

Kieffer (w)

GROUP B

5 to 6 ft.

$2.00 each, $22.00 per doz.

Beurre de Anjou (w)	Flemish Beauty (a)
Duchess d'Angouleme (a)	Koonce (s)

GROUP C

$2.50 each, $28.00 per doz.

Bartlett (s)	Seckel (a)
Beurre Bosc (w)	Sheldon (a)
Beurre Clairgeau (w)	Vermont Beauty (a)
Clapp's Favorite (s)	Wilder (s)
Garber (a)	Worden Seckel (a)
Lawrence (w)

One acre (70 trees) will produce at maturity $500.00 worth of fruit. Recommend Bartlett or Kieffer as standard commercial sorts.

Dwarf Pears

Dwarf Pears are budded on Quince roots, hence assume a dwarf habit. The Duchess is the leading sort and should be sold in preference to all other varieties. The trees bear when very young, do not attain such a large size as standard sorts, hence are particularly desirable for customers having only a small lot.

GROUP A

3 to 4 ft.

$1.50 each, $16.00 per doz.

DUCHESS de ANGOULEME

GROUP B

3 to 4 ft.

$2.00 each, $22.00 per doz.

Bartlett	Kieffer
Beurre Clairgeau	Seckel
Beurre de Anjou	Vermont Beauty
Clapp's Favorite	Wilder
Flemish Beauty	Worden-Seckel

An acre of Dwarf Pears (300 trees) produced 200 barrels at $3.00 a barrel.

Cherries

The sour varieties are always one foot shorter than sweets at the same age. Salesmen must be careful not to promise all trees of same size, if selling both sweets and sour.

SOUR VARIETIES

4 to 5 ft.

$2.50 each, $28.00 per doz.

Baldwin	Large Montmorency
Dyehouse	Late Duke
Early Richmond	May Duke
English Morello	Ostheime

BLACK SWEET VARIETIES

5 to 6 ft.

$3.00 each, $34.00 per doz.

Bing	Lambert
Black Heart	Schmidt's Bigarreau
Black Tartarian	Windsor

SWEET WHITE VARIETIES

5 to 6 ft.

$3.00 each, $34.00 per doz.

Centennial	Napoleon
Governor Wood	Yellow Spanish
Oxheart	Rockport (reddish)

An acre of cherries (110 trees) five years old should produce $300.00 in fruit. At ten years $1800.00 and regularly thereafter. It pays to raise cherries.

Plums and Prunes

This list of varieties are very upright growers, hardy and prolific bearers. No better sorts can be secured anywhere.

5 to 6 ft.

$2.50 each, $30.00 per doz.

Beauty of Naples, Yellow	Lombard, Violet Red
Bradshaw, Violet Blue	Monarch, Purple
Felleberg, Dark Blue	Moore's Arctic, Purple

German Prune	Reine Claude, Green
Grand Duke, Purple	Shropshire Damson, Purple
Green Gage, Green	Shipper's Pride, Purple
Hungarian Prune	Yellow Egg, Yellow
Imperial Gage, Green	York State Prune
Italian Prune

HARDY JAPAN VARIETIES

The Japan sorts, now fully naturalized in this country, are more low growing and have a spreading habit. When fully loaded with fruit, as they usually are every year, the limbs will touch the ground. Very desirable for home grounds.

5 to 6 ft.

$2.50 each, $30.00 per doz.

Abundance (Yellow)	Red June
Burbank (Red)	Satsuma (Purple)
October (Purple)	Wickson (Red)

AMERICAN VARIETIES

These are very hardy and desirable for cold climates.

5 to 6 ft.

$2.00 each, $24.00 per doz.

De Sota (Red)	Wild Goose (Reddish
Hawkeye (Reddish)	Yellow)
Weaver (Purple)

HANSEN'S HYBRID PLUMS

These choice varieties are now sold almost exclusively in the states from Wisconsin to the Rocky Mountains. They prefer them to all other sorts.

5 to 6 ft.

$2.00 each, $24.00 per doz.

Waneta	Toka
Opata	Hanska
Sapa

One acre of plums (110 trees) will produce $800.00 in fruit in a single year.

Peaches

SPRING DELIVERY ONLY

(f) for Freestone; (c) for Clingstone.

Crawford's Late (f)	Salway (f)
Heath's Cling	Wonderful (f)

5 acres of apple trees (200 trees) with peaches in between (600 trees) make a combination that will increase the value of the land 500% in five years.

Apricots

The Apricot is a fruit that deserves to be better known all over the country. It is as easy to grow as the peach, and a profuse bearer. There is no prettier sight than a fine apricot tree loaded with delicious fruit. You should sell more apricots.

3 to 4 ft.

$2.00 each, $22.00 per doz.

Alexander	Montgamet
Breda	Moorpark
Early Golden	Royal
Harris	Superb
J. L. Budd	St. Ambrose

Nectarines

3 to 4 ft.

$2.50 each, $28.00 per doz.

Boston	Red Roman	Early Violet
--------	-----------	--------------

The Nectarine will grow well and produce an abundance of fine fruit, wherever the peach is a success.

Quinces

The Orange or Apple Quince, is a large finely formed fruit of a golden yellow color, and very productive. It is the only variety that is extensively cultivated for its fruit, although in a few sections the other varieties have become well established. For preserving and canning, the quince is in a class by itself, having no near relative in our northern climate. When preserved with apple it is a most delicious sauce. At least one quince tree should be in every garden. Many consider the quince jelly the finest of all flavors.

3-4 ft.

$2.50 each, $28.00 per doz.

ORANGE	Borgeat
Champion	Rea's Mammoth
Meeches Prolific

Grapes

Our salesmen should recommend the grape as a suitable cover for trellises, garages, and particularly back porches. They will grow everywhere, and look well on line fences. The two leading sorts are in Group A. There is no big demand for the other varieties.

Barr's Mammoth

Conover's Colossal

Palmetto

In the towns and cities the market is never overstocked with good bunches of Asparagus shoots. Last season we had orders up to 10,000 for a single planting. There are good books to be had on the culture of all small fruits for commercial purposes.

All stock listed on this page can be sent parcel post direct to customer. We urge you to make as large sales as possible on these items.

Small Fruits

Every small home owner should have an assortment of small fruits named below. Why pay four to five times as much per quart out of the market, as it costs to grow them. A dozen plants of each class of berries will produce an abundance of fruit for the table from year to year. From a commercial standpoint, the demand for this fruit is constantly increasing, due to the canneries constantly calling for more stock. In every fruit growing section the farmers are being urged to plant more small fruits, as there is never an over supply. We give special prices on quantity orders in our Quantity List.

CURRENTS

Strong two year stock that will bear the first year.

GROUP A

(Black Currants cannot be sold, as they are forbidden by Government embargo. No currants can be sold west of Mississippi River, for same reason.)

GROUP B

75c each, $8.00 per doz.

PERFECTION, red

The Perfection is considered the largest and finest of all red sorts, and has taken medals at many expositions.

GOOSEBERRIES

A gooseberry bush will bear fruit the first year, and when it attains full size, will produce from 4 to 6 quarts a year. A half dozen plants is sufficient for the average family.

Two year old, strong plants

75 cts. each, $8.00 per doz.

Pearl (white)

All stock listed on this page can be sent parcel post direct to customer. We urge you to make as large sales as possible on these items.

RASPBERRIES

Our salesmen should understand the difference in price among various firms offering raspberries. The tips or suckers are small plants produced between August and the following Spring. TRANSPLANTS are these same tips or suckers that have been transplanted one full year longer. We fill our orders with TRANSPLANTS, which are the most satisfactory for the small home owner. They frequently bear the first year and a good average crop the second year.

GROUP A

Plant all raspberries and blackberries 2500 to the acre. They bear some fruit the first year and a real crop the second year.

All stock listed on this page can be sent parcel post direct to customer. We urge you to make as large sales as possible on these items.

Hardy Climbing and Rambling Roses

We include all the best sorts, and have divided them into two classes, those with small flowers in clusters and those with large flowers two or more inches across. The demand for good climbing roses is enormous, as they are suitable for planting in all sorts of situations and specially for hedges and along line fences. You will make no mistake in offering these sorts by the hundred among patrons who should have them in quantity.

The following sorts have a wide sale:

Hardy Perennials

We are leaving the list and prices out of our price list this season, for the reason that we now have a special book on the subject, which contains a picture of every variety we handle with good description and price. If our salesmen will study this book during their spare moments, they will soon acquire a good working knowledge of these wonderful plants. You must learn to sell Hardy Perennials, as they are one of the most satisfactory lines of stock we furnish our patrons. They bloom every year. It is possible to get a steady succession of bloom from April to October, by making a proper selection, and it is also possible to acquire a list of varieties which will make an excellent color effect, or varieties that are very fragrant. We wish you to know our Perennial Book from cover to cover, as it means money in your pocket. We are selling thousands of these hardy plants where we used to sell hundreds.

In this book we give you our fine assortment of PAEONIAS, PHLOX, Iris, Dahlias and many other varieties which have a steady and ever increasing sale. Carry the book folded up in your pocket and ask for a new copy as fast as the last one becomes soiled. Those varieties of perennials which are illustrated with color plates in our plate book, you may take the prices from our book and mark them with lead pencil on the bottom of the plates in your plate book.

All of this class of stock can be sent parcel post and is in the customer's hands in two to four days after it leaves our packing yard, in fresh and perfect condition. We believe under our new plan of shipping as above indicated we are giving better satisfaction than ever before. Our plants will grow and multiply from year to year and be a standing advertisement of your aggressive work. We shall watch the sales of every man on this class of stock.

Shade and Ornamental Trees

$25.00 Spent in Ornamenting the Home Grounds Will Add from $300 to $500 to the Selling Value.

Note 1—The size mentioned after each variety is that considered as proper for first-class trees, suitable for transplanting. The size varies according to the habit of growth of the varieties mentioned as, of course, some trees when fully grown are smaller than others, but equally as good.

Note 2—We divide the Ornamental Trees into two classes to distinguish those suitable for street planting and those best adapted for single specimens for lawns.

GOVERNMENT QUARANTINES

No five-leaf pines, currants or gooseberries can be shipped from the eastern states west of the Mississippi River. No orders for Purple or European Barberry, or Mahonia can be accepted and we have cut them out of our price lists.

STATE QUARANTINES

On account of several states prohibiting the shipment of all kinds of Chestnut Trees, we have decided to leave them out of our price list. Nearly all states are quarantined against them, on account of the chestnut blight.

Black currants must not be sold anywhere and we have none for sale.

These quarantines are a good thing and our salesmen must not take any orders for stock which is prohibited. Plants or trees which carry diseases which are destructive to our great wheat fields, or our beautiful forests should no longer be propagated by nurserymen, and we have left them all out of our price lists.

The tall-growing Barberry and Black Currants carry the wheat rust and the five leaf pines the pine rust, and the chestnut trees the chestnut blight, so we shall not furnish them in future, (this does not include the Barberry thunbergii, our popular hedge plant).

Agents Wanted

Special Offer—If you will mark on the back of your weekly reports from week to week the names of men or women who you find would make good agents, we will make them offers and try to interest them in our work. If they start canvassing, we will pay you $25.00 as soon as any of them send us $500.00 worth of good orders, or if they should sell less than that amount, 5% on what they do sell. Ladies are very successful with our Perennial Book and prefer to handle that line exclusively. A good lady agent on your territory, selling only Perennials, might work up several thousand dollars worth of orders, and not interfere with your business at all. This is an age of specialists.
